sorts of eastern curios collected by Miss Blair in her recent travels were placed, introduced just the right sort of an environment for the charmingly characteristic talk which Miss Blair gave.

Both places and events were described as well as people, or rather they were suggested or referred to in the bright and vivid manner which the talker possessed for the pleasure of her audience. Photographs of the earliest Egyptian attempts at sculpture and architecture were shown. The miniature figure of a Nublan woman in native costume and head drapery, Illustrated forcibly some apt remarks made by Miss Blair on the racial poculiarities of the Nublans as a people. Beads bought at Egyptian bazars, and a ring presented to Miss Blair by an attached dragorman were among the things viewed with great interest by the large crowd of ladies who filled the club rooms.

Among the guests of the club were Mrs. Schuyler Hamilton, of New York; Miss Sarah Eutherfoord, Miss Laura, T. Rutherfoord, Miss M. O. Harris, Miss Susie P. SEABOARD DIRECTORS

A Very Important Meeting to be Held by Them in New York To-day.

WILLIAMS AND RYAN TALK

the Scaboard Air Line Railway system returned to the city Sunday from New York, but left yesterday morning for tha city in order to attend a meeting of the directorate of the road there to-day.

While in the city Mr. Williams gave out a statement for publication in which Messrs. Ryan and Blair upon by the Seaboard directors to-day. The president declares that he and his associates, owning a large majority of the stock of the read, approve the financial arrangement whereby Mr. Ryan and Blair and Company agree to advance the money needed to pay the floating debt of the road and to provide terminals, equipment, etc., for the new Birmingham and Atlanta branch, now nearing completion. Mr. Vallems insists that the funds for the construction of this link were obtained by the sale of $8,000,000 of four per cent. bonds of the Birmingham division. This bond is alled on the construction of this link were obtained by the sale of $8,000,000 of four per cent. bonds of the Birmingham division. This bond is all decent of the new branch.

The Scaboard is declared to be in a thoroughly sound and healthy condition. He calls attention to the fact that the last annual report shows the floating debt to have been less than one million, and while denying that it now amounts to $2,800,000. he does not state just what the present figure is. The surplus earnings of the past year he says that they have been equal to more than four per cent. on the preferred stock.

MR. RYAN'S OFFER.

Mr. Thomas F. Ryan was interviewed by a New York correspondent of a Baltimore paper. In this publication it is stated that Mr. Ryan and Blair and Company was a statement of the right to name eight of the fifteen 'directors.

the past year he says that they have been equal to more than four per cent, on the preferred stock.

MR, RYAN'S OFFER.

Mr. Thomas F. Ryan was interviewed by a New York correspondent of a Baltmore paper. In this publication it is stated that Mr. Ryan and Blair and Company put two and a half millions at the disposal of the Seaboard Air Line in consideration of the right to name eight of the fifteen directors.

From the statement of Mr. Ryan, the only opposition to the deal comes from Ladenburg, Thalman and Company, New York bankers, who are interested in Seaboard securities. Bruest Thalman, of that firm, is a director of the Seaboard (if the Ryan-Williams deal is consummated it is said that Mr. Thalman will retire from the board. It is stated that Mr. John Skelton Williams, J. William Middendorf and S. Davies Warfield are all in favor of the deal with Mr. Ryan and Blair and Company. In fact, all the negotiations were conducted through Mr. Williams, Mr. Ryan directly denies that there has been any opposition to the transaction by interests in Baltimore and Richmond, but declares that all the opposition comes from minority interests in New York.

Mr. Ryan confirms the statement that

New York.

Mr. Ryan confirms the statement that the independence and autonomy of the Seaboard system is to be maintained, and utterly denies the statement that the Southern Railway is in any way interested in the deal. Four of the eight directors to be chosen by the Ryan-Blair Syndicate are S. Davies Warfield, John B. Dennis, S. Davies Warfield and Mr. Ryan himself. When asked if Mr. Williams would remain as president under the reorganization proposed, Mr. Ryan replied that that question is to be settled when it is renched. The same answer was made to a question as to Mr. Middendorf. Mr. Ryan declined to state the exact amount of the loan made by himself and Blair and Company.

Mr. Ryan emphasized the point that in these negotiations he was acting fully in accord with Mr. Williams, and that they were supported by Messrs. Warfield and Middendorf. The consummation of the deal, said he, would mean an absolutely independent road for the Seaboard. He emphatically denied that either he or Mr. Blair is acting in the interest of the Southern Railway.

Whether the selection of eight directors by Messrs. Ryan and Blair will mean any radical change in the policy of the Seaboard further than the retirement of Mr. Thalman remains to be seen, Mr. Ryan's reply as to the future official status of President Williams conveys no information, and this fact, taken in connection with assurances from the Williams' interests that the present president will remain at the head of the system, are regarded as assuring the continuation of the Richmond financier as the executive head of the system.
